

Meet Andre' & Nikki Greene, powerful writers and speakers with a wide variety of relative messages for today's audiences. Andre's background is in International commercial voice over work and motivational speaking, award winning sales and a commercial business developing. Andre' Greene is a self motivated entrepreneur who has has been coast to coast and overseas speaking to audiences ranging in sizes from 5, to 50, to 50,000. Spanning an amazing 15 plus years, he uses articulate, poignant deliveries accompanied with the knowledge and know how to reach today's generation with messages in a relative way. Andre' consistently makes a huge impact on all who are privileged to witness him speak. Mr Greene is an amazing writer and has a vast library of music he has built over the years producing dozens of R&B, Hip Hop, Rock & Alternative artists nationally. In a group called VOICE OFFICIAL Mr. Greene enjoyed commercial success and transitioned into the world of film working with Eye Level Films doing a wide variety of music videos and commercial projects.

Mr. Greene has spoken with excellence at several schools and seminars around the United States, and has been the voice of commercials for Starbucks, McDonald's, KFC and several other Fortune 500 companies.

Andre' is the founder of www.HelpClearTheAir.com where he takes a stand against Big Tobacco companies using audio/visual media, poetry, dance, acting, art & music in its purest forms.

The Greene's have a message that transcends race and social status to touch audiences in an unforgettable way. His topics of expertise include, self growth, maximizing time, community building, self respect, integrity, and giving back. Mr Greene's poise, wit, and spontaneity enable him to impact any audience and leave long lasting impressions.